CYCLONIC WAS FRIDAY STORM

Much Damage to Sebring Property by Wind

SANITARY PLANT HIT

New Salem Structure Badly Damaged by Friday Afternoon's Storm—Narrow Escape for Workmen—Sebring Ball Park in Storm Path.

Sebring, July 18.—A teriffic wind storm, of such force as to be termed a small cyclone, struck Sebring about 3 o'clock Friday afternoon and with one sweep, toppled over small buildings, tore roofs off of buildings and did other damage.

An elegant $4500 house in the course of construction, was turned around about eight inches off the foundation. The frame work and roof was on, J. V. Newlin having the contract. The house is being built by George Frasier who carried no insurance. The residence building of Louis Saunders was also moved by the violence of the wind and considerably damaged but this was covered by insurance.

The driving park and ball grounds were the scenes of the most damage. The roof of the horse stables at the race track were blown off and the small ticket office at the entrance of the grounds was turned over. The top of the grandstand was torn off and blown into the ball field a short distance away while the bleachers were also torn down.

An outhouse was blown into the street and other small buildings were moved from their foundations. The extent of the damage is not known.

Had not the rain driven the seven or eight workmen employed on the foundry building at the National Sanitary Manufacturing Co.'s plant under shelter, they might have a few minutes later been injured by the fall of heavy trusses and rafters which crushed the walls of the building beneath them Friday afternoon about 3 o'clock The men had just left their work and sought shelter when the sudden crash came.

The work of erecting the trusses was begun Friday morning and these with three rows of rafters had been erected at the north end of the building when the storm came up. The rafters were placed in such a position that the wind caught the flat side of them, and the entire frame structure was blown down, crushing both the east and west walls. Several plasterers were knocked down, and a part of the north end of the building broken. There was no insurance on the structure.

The work of clearing away the broken structure was begun Saturday morning, and it will take several days next week to complete this in order to begin the rebuilding. It is thought two or three weeks will be consumed in rebuilding the damaged building. The cupola is expected to arrive next week, and work will have progressed to such an extent by that time that the cupola could have been set up immediately upon its arrival. It will now be several weeks before this can be done.

Trees blown down in Alliance during the storm Friday afternoon fell across the long distance wires of the Bell Telephone Co. in that city, breaking every line except the one to Salem. Officials of the company there telephoned to Manager J. K. Stitt of the local office who notified others of the damage.

Roy Saffell, who lives southeast of Georgetown, lost seven head of fine cows during the heavy storm Friday afternoon. About twenty head of stock were standing under a tree in a field when lightning struck it, and killed the cows, which had forced the younger stock out away from the trunk of the tree.

Talking Motion Pictures.

An attraction that promises to be a good drawing card will be presented at the Grand opera house Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of the coming week. The Humanovo motion pictures have been exciting much attention in neighboring cities and will be shown for the first time in this city next week. Many will avail themselves of the first opportunity to witness these pictures.

Pottery Stock Sale Confirmed.

Lisbon, July 18.—The sale of three shares of East Palestine pottery stock owned by Ferdinand Overlander, deceased, late of East Palestine, and which was made by the executor, L. D. Overlander, was yesterday confirmed in probate court.

MANY MATTERS BEFORE SERVERS

The board of public service held a regular meeting Friday night in the office of Auditor Holmes, and O. K.'d a bunch of bills. The drain recently placed in the ravine back of the Columbia street school house has been completed, and the clerk was directed to send bills to Frank Moff and the board of education for their share of the expense. The report of the street commissioner was heard and approved. Engineer French reported that Divine, Wilson & Applegate were short of three-foot tile and could not secure any more, as the kiln furnishing them had been destroyed, and they wanted permission to use 24-inch tile for the balance of the line for the disposal plant. As this changing of lengths would have no effect on the contract, the board granted the desired permission. The engineer reported that there would have to be some protection afforded the trunk line sewer at the creek east of town, on the Smith property, and suggested that a retaining wall be built, and that another place where washouts were exposing the line, ought to be reinforced with concrete. The contractors had offered to put in this concrete at $8 per yard, there being about 50 yards of it required. The board instructed the engineer to look carefully into the matter and investigate the advisability of using a concrete mixer to make the repairs.

Sugar Tree alley again revived itself and was reported in a very bad condition with the mud. The street com-

TALK OF AUTO CLUB FOR SALEM HEARD

The visit of the Wilkinsburg Automobile club, who are today the guests of Dr. H. W. Thompson of Garfield avenue, at once suggests the organization of a similar club among local autoists. Betwen 50 and 75 automobiles are now owned in Salem, from the runabout to the heavy touring car, and as a means of mutual benefit the value of such an organization can scarcely be overestimated. Besides the pleasure of congenial association among fellow motorists there would undoubtedly be an advantage in securing special rates on accommodations whenever a club run was made, which would be frequent, just as the bicycle runs of ten years ago made club runs. The suggestion has been made that the local autoists get together and hold a meeting for the purpose of arranging such an organization at an early date.

Grant in Chicago.

Wm. Grant, who left Salem last week after shooting at Warren Howe ond for whom the latter had sworn out a warrant, is in Chicago, from where he has made application to union headquarters for his card.

Miss Lucille Emmons of this city, who has been attending the Indianapolis School of Music, has returned home.

STATE INSPECTOR'S REPORT ON LOCAL SCHOOLS ARRIVES

The state buildings inspectors who visited Salem recently and inspected the public school buildings have made their report to the department, and the Salem board of education Saturday received a lengthy communication, which they were considering at a special meeting Saturday afternoon at press time. A full statement of the findings of the inspectors and the department's report, together with the probable action of the board upon same, will be given out Monday.

Unfair Scoring at Big World Meet

London, July 18.—(Special.)—The stadium where the fifth Olympiad is in progress might well be termed the camp of dissension. The American contingent, who are dissatisfied, were joined today by the French-Canadians, although the latter would receive merely nominal glory for prowess no matter how much skill and strength her men would display.

The English are persistent in the unfair system of scoring but a single point for first in all events. This system makes it impracticable for other countries to beat the English, as the English have hundred of athletes entered in the various events, while the teams of other countries are necessarily limited. In many events that England is relying upon to pull her team through, no other countries have entered, and thus the victory will go to England by default.

Martin J. Sheridan, American, was the victor in the final discus throw this afternoon, hurling the plate 128 feet 8 inches. Other winners today are: Steeple chase, Russell, England, first; Robert, England, second; Eifle, America, third. The 5,000 meter bicycle race was won by Jones of England. Holman of England won the 200 meter breast stroke swim.

SAYS HIS DAUGHTER WAS TREATED SHAMEFULLY

Beloit, July 18.—Following the published report from the committee appointed to investigate the charges of cruelty at the Massillon state insane hospital, in which the management and attendants of the hospital were exonerated from all blame in certain charges of cruelty, Elmer E. Stanley of this village this week gave out for publication in the press the following statement regarding brutal treatment alleged to have been accorded his daughter while an inmate of the asyium:

"Esteemed friend, kindly permit me through the medium of your paper, to state some facts. Since the investigating committee has given a complete whitewash in regard to the brutalities inflicted on the inmates of Massillon State hospital, these facts are now due the public.

"My daughter was an inmate of said institution from December 10, '06, to November 23, '07, with the exception of a 12 days' vacation at home.

"It is not the hospital proper of which I wish to speak, but of ward No. 2, where she was confined some seven weeks. Only about one week had passed when, as she stated, she upset two bottles of ink (unfortunate occurence), she was then placed in solitary confinement night and day. The windows in these rooms are so arranged that when the inner shutters are closed all light is excluded except that which comes through holes similar to perforated chair bottoms. From her sleeping room she was transferred in the daytime to a room devoid of either couch or chair or cushion, and if she wanted to sit down the floor was her only solace, with her bones almost through her flesh. At the time of bringing her home her weight was only 62 pounds, and this included her heavy winter coat. She complained bitterly of the treatment and food, telling how the nurses abused her and the food being insufficient; bread at times given without butter and rolled oats without sugar, and if this was not immediately eaten was slapped in the face; her face at that time being horribly bruised and large black spots also back of her ears; these the doctors said were self-inflicted. I have time and time again tried to find out the bill of fare in this building, but was always given an evasive answer. Not knowing her true condition I was advised by an attendant, if possible, to take her home, as she was not receiving one-half of the care due to one in her condition. Permission was given by Dr. Eyman for her removal home, and it was then the horrors began to unfold. All down her spine and in numerous other places were black and blue spots, her head was full of lice and her whole person covered with itch, and on each shoulder was a running sore. If anyone wants corroboration of the above they can consult Dr. A. R. Cobbs of Damascus. We also took her to Dr. Anderson of Salem.

"After bringing her home she rapidly gained in weight, and in a few weeks weighed 105 pounds, with the

THIRD WORLD TOUR OF EVANGELIST

Evangelist C. H. Yatman, well known in this city, will close a series of meetings in Youngstown Sunday evening, and will leave for a tour of all the principal countries of the globe, traveling 65,000 miles north, south, east and west.

From Youngstown Rev. Mr. Yatman goes Monday to McKeesport to fill an engagement, and thence will proceed east to make the final arrangements for the long journey. Within a very short time he expects to leave the United States for Mexico and continue down the west coast and up the east coast of South America. Then he will cross the ocean to the gates of Hercules, and speak to the wild Arabs of Northern Africa. Natives of the occident and orient, those who dwell in the land of the midnight sun and in the south seas will all hear his voice.

Besides being the most extensive missionary effort ever undertaken, Yatman's proposed tour is unique in other ways. Not only to the natives will the evangelist carry his message but also to those English-speaking people in foreign lands. In his previous two trips around the world Rev. Mr. Yatman says that he discovered they needed the gospel sometimes more than the natives. By their actions and attitude they are claimed to be the greatest hindrance to the spread of modern civilization and the Christian religion.

Rev. Mr. Yatman expects to work through an interpreter among foreign peoples, although he can speak many languages himself.

INDEPENDENT PHONE CONFERENCE AUG. 15

Notices have been sent out of a conference of the leading men in the independent telephone business which will be held at Niagara Falls August 15. Over $75,000,000 of invested capital will be represented at the meeting, which will have for its objects the formation of a more comprehensive long distance arrangement with the independent companies, the bringing about of a closer interworking affiliation between the local independent companies and the checking of the consolidation campaign now being waged by the Bell interests. The long distance proposition will come up first. It may be stated that this does not purpose any consolidation of independent companies, but the formation of a long distance company which would handle all long distance telephone and telegraph business. It is said that financial arrangements have already been made for this company, and that the local independent companies will be financially interested in it. Among the men who will attend the conference are Frank L. Beam, president of the Ohio Independent Telephone association; Gansey R. Johnston, general manager of the Columbus Citizens Telephone Co., and many other men prominent in the telephone industry of Ohio.

Mrs. Alex Stewart of this city is visiting relatives in Limaville.

MAKING EYES AT MAYOR'S JOB?

Anti-Carlile Faction May Support McArtor

COUNCILMAN WILLIN'

Quiet Efforts in Behalf of Councilman From the Fourth Ward Being Made, According to Rumor—Senior Member of Present Council.

With the last municipal election not a year away and the next more than a year in the future, absolute quiet in city political circles would at this time be the rule rather than the exception. However, tongues have been wagging industriously during the past couple of weeks and some rather interesting rumors are found to be afloat anent the coming municipal contest.

When Mayor Carlile declined to accept the nomination for congress in the Eighteenth district this year, it was whispered about that the portly mayor would again be a candidate for the office to which he has been elected three times. That is, provided——!

There are always possible obstacles to consider in planning a campaign, and it is said that Mayor Al is now facing one of those annoying things in the form of opposition to re-nomination.

The story afloat has it that a faction is being very quietly organized among local Democrats who are opposed to Carlile, and that they will, when the proper time arrives, concentrate their energies toward handing the mayoralty nomination plum to Councilman George McArtor, who has represented the Fourth ward in city council for a number of years, and is now, in point of service, the senior member of that body.

It is understood, also, that this quiet movement is not progressing altogether unbeknown to the senior councilman. In fact, it is openly intimated that Mr. McArtor is and has been for several months in a very receptive mood, and, like another distinguished Democrat, now residing near Lincoln, Neb., does not propose to allow any honors in the nomination line to pass by while he isn't looking.

Mr. McArtor has, almost from the beginning of his councilmanic career, been constantly in the public eye because of the prominent part he has taken in various matters that have come before that body for settlement, and although having acquired something of a reputation as a fighter and a stand-patter when once his mind is made up, he is asid to have a strong following in his party that would promptly rally to his support. It is also contended that he has given his party long and faithful service, and that he is entitled to the nomination which heretofore has been Carlile's for the asking.

Of course the next Democratic city convention is many months away and there are other political questions to occupy the attention of both leaders and voters before that time arrives, but the wind is blowing and occasionally is stirs up a slight rustle.

GRISSELLE SELLS FARM AND MAY LEAVE SALEM

Paul Griselle, who was temporarily incarcerated in the city jail on Friday pending the results of an autopsy on the body of his wife, Mrs. Barbara Griselle, and later released, on Saturday sold his farm to Press Weaver through Hanna & Kridler. It is reported that Mr. Griselle intends returning to Colorado, where he was formerly employed as a train dispatcher.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Kille went to Pittsburg Saturday morning to spend Sunday.

32 MACHINES IN AUTO PARTY DRIVING TO SALEM SATURDAY

Dr. H. W. Thompson, who will entertain members of the Wilkinsburg Automobile club and their families at his home on Garfield avenue over Sunday, received word Saturday morning from Dr. W. C. Cooke, secretary of the club, to the effect that the auto party, composed of 32 machines, left Pittsburg on scheduled time, 7 o'clock Saturday morning. The group includes ten more machines than had intended

There is good reason to question the advisability of spending a large sum of money, probably $15,000, on repairing the old county jail at Lisbon, as is now proposed by the county commissioners. On the 5th of last November the people of Columbiana county voted down a proposition to build a new jail, although urged by the county commissioners to do so. Now, in face of the people's decision the commissioners propose to go ahead and practically reconstruct the old jail into a new one at considerable expense. No one disputes the legal right of the commissioners to do what they propose to do, but their action approaches a rather defiant attitude toward the people's will. If the people had felt that a new or practically new jail was needed, or if they had felt implicit confidence in the county commissioners, they would have given their consent to the expenditure asked. In the final analysis the people constitute all government in this country, and to flagrantly defy or ignore them is seldom, if ever, wise.

The charges which Elmer Stanley of Beloit makes in his public statement regarding treatment accorded his daughter while she was an inmate of the Massillon state hospital, have the ring of sincerity, and his neighbors who know him well do not believe that he would be so indignant if there were not reasons for his charges. And yet, the committee which investigated recent charges completely exonerated the hospital management and attendants. Would "whitewashed" by the better word? At any rate, the fact that the committee permitted itself to be entertained as guests of the hospital management during the investigation was not quite as commendable as the public would like. No court ever permitted an accused prisoner to entertain and dine a jury chosen to try him. If brutal conditions are permitted to exist in such a public institution, the people are justified in protesting vigorously, for often times these offenses strike very near to the hearthstone.

Years back talk of breaking the "Solid South" was classed with such other impossibilities as ice jams in the Amazon river or the moon turning to green cheese. But this year's indications point to something different. It is not at all beyond the pale of the improbable to expect that William H. Taft will carry several southern states this year. He is very popular below Mason's and Dixon's line, and, on the contrary, the admiration for Bryan has cooled off perceptibly.

That the question of county local option will not be mixed up with the other issues that will come thick and fast as the regular fall election approaches, seems now practically decided. It is considered by those interested that the question is big enough for a campaign of its own.

Yesterday was Hans Wagner day in Pittsburg. In making out a list of the Smoky City's eminent citizens few Pittsburgers would fail to place the great hero of the diamond right among the very first.

A Youngstown paper is quoted as saying that Congressman Kennedy will have a walkaway in his campaign for re-election this fall. Not quite correct. It will be a runaway.

The argument which the railroads present in justification of their plan to advance freight rates—that they need the money—is by no means a a new one.

A Pittsburg paper heads an editorial "Oh Hush, Hearst!" That is what a long-suffering public thinks about it, too.

Less than 400 words in the Prohi platform this year. But even its abbreviated form may not save it from criticism.

A BANKER IS SENT TO JAIL.

A New Yorker Is Accused of Misappropriating More than $100,000.

New York, July 18.—Frank Zotti, head of the banking institution of Frank Zotti & Co., on Greenwich street, which went into the hands of a receiver on Wednesday, was taken into custody Friday and arraigned before Magistrate Corrigan on a charge of grand larceny. The banker was remanded to the Tombs under $25,000 bail for examination on Saturday.

The specific charge against Zotti, according to the affidavit of the police, is that he failed to forward to Bulgaria $225 given him by a customer of the bank. Detective McConville in the affidavit adds to the specific charge that "he had been given to understand that the defendant had withheld other monies amounting to more than $100,000."

The banker declared he was the victim of a plot to ruin him. He said that three Pittsburg men had started the trouble which resulted in a receiver being appointed for his bank recently. These three men, he declared, circulated petitions among depositors at the institution asking for a receiver, and frightened them into believing the institution was insolvent. Zotti did not give the names of the Pittsburg men.

The August Smart Set.

A novelette of unusual interest opens the August number of The Smart Set. It is called "The Diary of an Unconscious Eve." The situation on which the novel is founded is at once unique and daring.

Numerous well-known writers are represented in the August issue. Particularly interesting is Elizabeth Jordan's story, "Her Letters;" Lilian Bell who never fails to write a lively story, contributes a bright sketch called "Dinner for Six;" Beatrix Demarest Lloyd, in "The World and the Wise," contributes what is probably her strongest short story; Anne Warner handles a tense situation with great art in her story, "The Night of the Eighteenth-Nineteenth;" Mary Fenollosa's Japanese play, "The Lady of the Hair-Pins," is a remarkably vivid drama in one act, containing all the color and glamour of Japan.

The poetry is of the usual excellence and is written by John G. Neihardt, Florence Earle Coates, Madison Cawein, Archibald Sullivan, Elsa Barker and Charles Hanson Towne.

Ragtime Dance Barred

Cuyahoga Falls, July 17.—Woe be unto you who do the ragtime dance at Silver Lake park. Two young men from Cleveland, H. Rosenberg and Frank Kansy, showed Wednesday how raggy they really could be when they set their pedal extremities to work. When told to "cut it out" by the policeman stationed at the dance hall, they tried to tell him to back up, but it wouldn't go, and they were placed under arrest. In a few moments' time they were ushered into the presence of W. R. Lodge, principal owner and manager of the lake, who also holds the title of justice of the peace. When the officer stated the case Mr. Lodge handed each a fine of $1 and costs.

GUILTY UNDER LAW HE WAS ENFORCING

Columbus, July 17.—C. S. Clover of Sharon, Pa., who was a delegate to the Prohibition national convention here is as widely known in his part of the state as is Carrie Nation throughout the country because of his persistency for the enforcement of the blue laws. He is the instigator of the movement for the rigid enforcement of the blue laws in Western Pennsylvania, but his zeal along this line has gotten himself into trouble more than once. He tried to stop newsboys and bootblacks from working on Sunday, and had some of these youngsters arrested under the state law against the performance of unnecessary labor on Sunday. Clover is an undertaker, and while he was anxious that every one else should obey this law, evidently did not think it incumbent upon himself to do so, for he went to the railroad station and hauled away a casket which was not needed before the next day. One of the bootblacks that he had prosecuted for working on the Sabbath filed an affidavit against him and Mr. Clover was haled into court and fined for doing the very thing that he had others mulcted for doing. He is happiest when engaged in some reform conflict. Mr. Clover is quite patriarchial in appearance, wearing large gold-rimmed spectacles and a luxuriant long white beard.

WASHINGTONVILLE

Washingtonville, July 18.—Work had to be called off at the Millville mine Friday on account of a fall of slate in one of the entries during Thursday night, some timbers being knocked out. Men had recently arrived to install the electric plant there, the foundation work being far enough advanced for them to begin the wiring and placing of power machines.

The engine of the Y. & O. R. steam train was disabled Thursday, it being necessary to pull the fire, and the engine crew went to Salem on electric cars for another engine.

The Leetonia band gave a street concert here Thursday evening, the purpose being to advertise their picnic to Silver Lake July 22. An invitation is extended to merchants and citizens of Washingtonville to join them.

The road committee of the village council has ordered the supervisor of streets to make improvements on Market street, the same being done now.

There will be no work at the Columbia Fire Clay Co.'s works until on Monday, a surplus of clay being loaded.

George Johnson, a merchant of Leetonia, formerly of this place, is very sick with typhoid fever.

Mrs. William Weikart accompanied her mother to Cleveland Thursday, and will visit in that city a few days.

The ladies of the M. E. church will hold their social in Allen's hall tonight.

Communion services will be held in the Evangelical Lutheran church on Sunday morning.

One of the electrical engineers who recently arrived to instal the plants at the different mines is a typical Scotchman, bringing his bagpipe with him. Music every evening is the result.

Prof. E. S. Freed has been tendered a position as principal of one of the schools at Alliance.

Miss Sophia Kittlesen, Evanston, Ill., writes:

"I have been troubled with catarrh for nearly twenty-five years and have tried many cures for it, but obtained very little help.

"Then my brother advised me to try Peruna, and I did.

"My health was very poor at the time I began taking Peruna. My throat was very sore and I had a bad cough.

"Peruna has cured me. The chronic catarrh is gone and my health is very much improved.

"I recommend Peruna to all my friends who are troubled as I was."

REVIEW OF TRADE.

Improvement Is Slow, but There Is Evidence of Progress.

New York, July 18.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says:

Improvement is slow in trade, but there is evidence of progress in the right direction. One of the best signs is the agreement upon lower wage scales without a struggle, assuring resumption of much idle machinery that would have been impossible without adjustment to altered conditions. Current retail trade is of fairly good dimensions for the season and inventories indicate that recovery is not menaced by heavy stocks. Preparation for fall and winter trade is most active in the west, but there is a growing feeling of confidence in the future that is stimulated by good progress on the farms.

More business is coming to the steel mills, although operations are still along conservative lines. Sentiment is improving more rapidly than actual conditions, as shown by the rapid rise in prices of securities of this industry, the common stock of the largest producer attaining the highest quotations of 1908 thus far. Sales of pig iron are not large, but numerous small orders aggregate a fair tonnage, the largest contracts coming from eastern cast iron pipe interests.

It Can't Be Beat.

The best of all teachers is experience. C. M. Harden of Silver City, North Carolina, says: "I fined Electric Bitters does all that's claimed for it. For stomach, liver and kidney troubles it can't be beat. I have tried it and find it a most excellent medicine." Mr. Harden is right; it's the best of all medicines, also for weakness, lame back and all run-down conditions. Best, too, for chills and malaria. FREIGHT RATES TO BE ADVANCED

IN TERRITORY SOUTH OF OHIO RIVER AND EAST OF THE MISSISSIPPI.

A BIG BATTLE IS PROMISED.

Shippers Will Hold a National Convention and Adopt Plans for Fighting the Proposed Increase in Tariffs.

Louisville, Ky., July 18.—That freight rates should be advanced in the territory of the Southeastern Freight association and the Southeastern Mississippi Valley association, which takes in all of the territory south of the Ohio river and east of the Mississippi river, was decided on at the meeting of the executive officers of all of the railroad systems interested which closed Friday. The advance, it is said, will be from 4 to 10 cents a hundred pounds, to correspond with the advances decided on by the Southwestern Freight association recently.

The advance was decided on after considerable opposition on the part of certain railroad executives who maintained that an advance of rates at the present time was impolitic, but this opposition was finally won over by the argument that in order to meet the various increased expenses, an increase in rates was absolutely necessary. The clerical forces of the railroads interested are quartered in Louisville temporarily, working out the tariffs. It is considered probable that the tariffs will not be in shape for filing before August 1, and in accordance with the requirements of the interstate commerce commission compelling rates to be filed 30 days prior to becoming effective, the new rates will not be in force until September 1.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 18.—It was stated here Friday by prominent shippers that the Indiana Manufacturers' and Shippers' association will resist with persistency any attempt by the railroads to increase freight in Central Freight association territory. The fact that a tariff schedule representing increased rates in the Southwestern Freight association territory has been filed, together with information to the effect that the officers of the Central Freight association are now in session in Chicago seeking to raise rates, will hasten to fruition plans which have been put on foot for a conference of representatives of shippers' associations of practically all the states of the Union. This conference, which likely will be held in Indianapolis, will take up the question of the proposed increase in rates all over the United States and will adopt plans for fighting the movement of the railroads.

Wagner Gets Valuable Gift.

Pittsburg, July 18.—Friday was celebrated here as "Wagner day" in honor of Hans Wagner, famous shortstop of the Pittsburg team. Previous to beginning the game with Boston the members of both teams gathered around the home plate with Wagner, much embarrassed, the center of attraction. In an appropriate address Director of Public Safety Lang presented Wagner with a gold watch and chaid valued at $700 as a token of esteem from 700 admirers who had subscribed $1 each. In addition the Carnegie lodge of Elks, of which Wagner is a member, presented him with a beautiful charm.

Multi-Murderer Stretches Hemp.

Moundsville, W. Va., July 18.—Frank Johnson, a negro, was hanged Friday at the penitentiary here for the murder of Mrs. Beulah Martin at Gypsy, W. Va., on March 3 last. A sensational feature of Johnson's last day was a confession made to the chaplain of the prison in which he said he had committed five murders during his career.

Prominent Xenia Man Dies.

Dayton, O., July 18.—Charles E Darlington, auditor of Greene county and a widely known man in western Ohio, died suddenly at his home in Xenia Friday. Mr. Darlington was 60 years of age and for 28 years had been attorney for the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

Insurgents' Attack Was Repulsed.

Tegucigalpa, Honduras, July 18.—The Honduran insurgents captured the town of Porvenier, on the north coast, and attacked Ceiba, another Atlantic port. At Ceiba they were repulsed. They have been beaten in the south and are fleeing back to Salvador.

Howard Douglass Dies.

Newark, N. J., July 18.—Howard Douglass of Cincinnati, one time a supreme court judge in Ohio, several times a Democratic candidate for mayor of Cincinnati and once for governor of Ohio, died here last night aged 61 years.

Miners Attacked Strike Breakers.

Birmingham, Ala., July 18.—Robert Gardner, a deputy marshal, was fatally wounded and a dozen miners were shot and wounded in an attack Friday at Jefferson on a train bearing strike breakers to Adamsville.

Conductor Charles Owens and Motorman Ike Mell of the Stark Electric returned Friday from a ten days' fishing trip in Michigan. He forgot to secure it, and as a result his newly shaved head received a genial scorching from Old Sol.

ALL OILS MUST BE INSPECTED BY STATE

Columbus, July 18.—The attorney general's department rendered a brace of opinions to State Oil Inspector W. H. Phipps, which, epitomized, are that all oils, whether used for illumination or other purposes, shall be inspected and fees collected for the same; that if additional help is needed it may be employed, though there is no authority to appoint an assistant state oil inspector; that deputies must confine their work to the limits of Ohio, and have no right to go to barreling stations in Pennsylvania and West Virginia to inspect oil to be shipped into Ohio; that one inspection of oils sold to independent or jobbing companies is sufficient, provided, however, that no change is made in the oil by the buyer, in which event a re-inspection must be made; that the payment of fees is not obligatory if the oils have been sold without inspection through ignorance of the law on the part of the dealer. The ruling that all kinds of oils are subject to inspection and fees will net the state at least $15,000 additional annually.

KEYSTONE GUARDS TOLD TO KEEP OUT

Columbus, July 18.—State Insurance Commissioner Charles C. Lamert received a letter Friday from the secretary of the Keystone Guard, a fraternal insurance organization with headquarters at Athens, Pa., to which the department refused to issue a license to do business in Ohio, and which, in spite of this instituted a branch at Dayton, stating that the branch had been organized by correspondence and that the officials did not think that would be objectionable to the department. Mr. Lamert at once wrote back advising the secretary that as the department had been refused a license, it could not do business in any county in Ohio, and that if it was attempted he would cause the arrest of those doing it. The commissioner notified Joseph Lyons, president of the branch of the organization at Dayton, the only one in the state as far as known that he must sever his connection with it and disband it. He has not heard from Lyons, but received a clipping from a Dayton paper in which Lyons was quoted as saying that he would resist the attempt of the commissioner to put the organization out of business, and that his statements to the effect that it was a fake were misrepresentations. A deputy of the department will go to Dayton to look into the case within a few days, and if the disbandment order is not complied with arrests will follow and the prosecution will be vigorously pushed.

same clothes; not only that but we have had her home nearly eight months, and never has she made a self-inflicted bruise of like character. I leave it to the public as to how the bruises were received.

"First I reported her case to my state senator, Hon. Thomas Kinsman, and after waiting some four weeks without reply, I then reported to Prosecuting Attorney Upham of Stark county, who turned over my letter to H. J. Eckley of Carrollton, a trustee of the institution, who promised a thorough investigation. Not hearing any word, I have made a report to Hon. A. Harris, governor, who directs his secretary to say that he wished I had reported my case sooner.

"The question now comes, to whom should one report, and in the face of the numerous brutalities reported, can it be possible graft is hindering a thorough investigation.

"The misery my daughter endured while in the institution I consider equal to the cruelties inflicted by the Spanish in olden times to a defeated foe, and yet we talk of a Christian land and boast of a state whose citizens are in an advanced state of civilization. Talk as we may of the South and the terrible outrages committed there, and her deadly feuds, but her equal exists right here in Ohio, and within the shadow of our own home."

THE PICTURES THAT TALK

Wooster Sees And Hears Latest Novelty

"The pictures really talk," is what those who were at the opera house on Thursday evening said as they came out of the theater after having seen and heard the Humanovo Talking Motion pictures. The entire entertainment is one that pleased because of the really beautiful and new pictures and illustrated songs that were presented, but the most pleasing and novel portion of the performance came in the talking pictures. The first of the talking films given was that of the pretty and interesting old play, "The Two Orphans" and "The Birthday Present." In the first the audience was treated to a very good presentation of the drama, showing many scenes and giving many of the lines. In the second the presentation of a beautiful necklace was shown, then the theft, the trail of the thief and his final detection and arrest. The actors and actresses, who are back of the screen, giving the lines and the business of the plays, do it finely, making the entertainment one of a very pleasing and novel character.

ROW AMONG LEADING PROHIBITIONISTS

Columbus, July 18.—There is a first-class rumpus on among the Prohibitionists of Ohio, the contending factions being led by H. F. McLane of Hiram and F. M. Mecartney of Columbus. In the organization of the state central committee the McLane faction shoved the Mecartney people off the map, and as a result of this Mecartney has resigned as member of the executive committee, and declares he will have nothing to do with its work, which will be to manage the campaign. It is stated that McLane is working to secure the nomination for governor, which place Watkins will resign on account of having been chosen for vice president by the national convention. So it would appear that the two big parties have no monopoly on factional fights. Mecartney has been the real head of the Prohibition party in Ohio for years.

AN UNFAIR DEAL IS HANDED OUT

TO AMERICAN ATHLETES BY MANAGERS OF THE OLYMPIC GAMES.

THEY REFUSE TO COMPETE

In the Tug of War Because Their British Opponents Are Allowed an Unfair Advantage—Their Protests Are Dismissed.

London, July 18.—A serious controversy has arisen between the American athletes and the British Olympic association. The American dressing rooms at the stadium have been turned into a camp of discontent and there are other competitors, including the Canadians and Frenchmen, who are none too satisfied with the way in which the events of the fifth Olympiad are being carried out. America's chief cause of complaint is the arbitrary manner in which their protest against "the flagrantly unfair method of conducting the tug of war" was dismissed. Every unprejudiced spectator present at Friday's meeting was convinced that the Americans were justified in refusing to go on with that event.

The United Kingdom had three teams entered in the tug of war, made up of the police of the city of London, Liverpool and the metropolitan forces. The drawings brought the American and Liverpool teams into the arena first. When the Americans appeared they received great applause. They all wore ordinary street shoes, complying with the rule which says:

"No competitor shall wear prepared boots or shoes with any projecting nails, tips, sprigs, points, hollows or projections of any kind. No competitor shall make any hole in the ground with his feet, or in any way before the start."

The Americans in wearing ordinary shoes naturally believed that the team representing the United Kingdom would do the same. Their disappointment, therefore, was all the greater when, upon the Liverpool police appearing, it was noticed that they were wearing enormous shoes, so heavy in fact that it was with difficulty they could lift their feet from the ground.

The shoes, or boots, were enormous calf affairs that could not by any stretch of imagination be called ordinary shoes. Heavy boots are worn in the British navy, but these were greatly exceeded in weight by the footgear of the Liverpool athletes, which, in addition, had steel rims around the heels.

Matthew P. Halpin, manager of the American team, who was watching things in behalf of his men, when he saw the shoes immediately entered a protest to the games officials, but he was told that the shoes were those ordinarily worn by Liverpool policemen. At first Mr. Halpin made up his mind to take the team off the field without attempting to pull, but finally he decided to go on with the first pull in order to show how unfairly the Americans were being treated.

The decision was a wise one, for the spectators in the stands nearby could see that as soon as the United Kingdom team put their weight down the heels of their shoes cut through the turf and gave them a hold that was almost impossible to break. The Americans made no effort and were promptly pulled across the line.

Manager Halpin then announced that the American team would not continue unless the rule was adhered to and his protest being ignored, the men marched off the grounds, an official proclaiming through a megaphone that the Americans retired "because they have had enough of it."

The facts in the case were reported to the American committee and James E. Sullivan, the American commissioner, preferred a formal protest to the British Olympic association, who turned it over to the officials of the Amateur Athletic association. As those officials already had decided in favor of their own team, the protest of course was not allowed.

The members of the American commission, the athletes and everybody connected with the team are disgusted, but they are going to fight it out to the end.

Danger in Delay

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous for Salem People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, diabets and Bright's disease follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Cure the kidneys with the certain and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in Salem.

Mrs. Sue Heston, living at 23 West Main St., Salem, O., says: "I had kidney trouble for a long time and suffered from backache greatly. There was a dull heavy aching over the kidneys, and when I caught cold or overworked the pains would be more severe. The trouble annoyed me greatly and my health became run down, and I felt tired and languid and had numerous headaches. I was feeling very bad when I read about Doan's Kidney Pills in our papers, and got a box at Bolger & French's drug store. Before I had taken the contents of one box I was entirely relieved of the trouble. I have not had a return of it since and my general health is better than it has been for a long time."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

JUGGLING OF BANK DEPOSITS AT TAX TIME CAUSES VERY SERIOUS LOSS.

"We find the investment of money at tax time in non-taxable bonds to be our most serious loss. Money withdrawn from the deposit account, loaned on mortgage or otherwise, or even invested in government bonds, is sooner or later returned for deposit.

"The tax rate in our village is about 4 per cent; 6 per cent is the rate for good loans. Under these conditions a good 4 per cent non-taxable bond at about par is an attractive investment.

"We find that when our customers buy these long time bonds that they very seldom offer them for sale. They prefer real estate mortgages to bonds, and if the tax rate could be reduced to one-half of one per cent, would loan their money on mortgage and it (the money) would be kept in the community.

"Our people here have not invested in municipal bonds to any great extent as yet, for the reason that there have been no local issues until recently. About $5,000.00 was invested in a local issue of bonds in the last 8 months, and they were purchased by people who would not lie about reporting their money to the assessor, and who did not like to put their money in the bank and get 4 per cent interest and then have to pay 3 per cent on the same for taxes, thus deriving only 1 per cent from their investment. Consequently they purchased 4 per cent tax-exempt bonds. The people who have learned to lie to the assessor (that includes nine-tenths of them) prefer to leave their money in the bank and draw the same rate of interest and they can then use it at any time.

"We believe a large majority of the people desire to pay their just proportion of the tax and would welcome a law that would place all values on a more equal basis."

KENTUCKY WANTS TAX REFORM.

Undoubtedly a vital need of Kentucky is a more scientific system of taxation. It is to our interest to promote every form of legitimate industry, not to repel it, and, in raising the necessary revenue, to levy the taxes by a system which shall be both effective and equitable. No one can claim such merits for our existing antiquated system, which is generally acknowledged to be a serious handicap on our development, as well as a clumsy and unfair method of gathering revenue.

The least the general assembly can do is to authorize a vote on a constitutional amendment making it possible to change the system as may be deemed best. Experience has demonstrated the inadequacy and injustice of our system and the superiority of other systems, and in moving for improvement we are not moving in the dark. What we ought to have, and what we demand, is freedom to move if we choose, instead of being bound hand and foot in such a way that, insofar as our taxation system can affect us, we must either remain stationary or go backward.—Editorial: Louisville Courier-Journal.

TAX EXEMPTION WITHOUT LAW.

Sometimes changes may be effected through practical arrangements when not provided for by law. We have an illustration of that in my state in regard to the assessment of farm products. The date of assessment has been changed in our state from the first of September to the first of June. For a number of years the assessment date was the first of September; then a number of years ago it was changed back to the first of August, and a few years since it was placed on the first of June. Now, you can see the advantage of this date to the farmer. On the first of June, under our law, the lists are supposed to be made up. Every citizen returns his property as of the first of June. The practice and working of that law is to exempt farm products from taxation. On the first of June the farmer has no crops harvested and he simply is taxed on his land. When the next June comes around, his crops have all been disposed of, so he pays no taxes on farm products. The operation of the law, as you will see, is peculiar, because on the first of June the lists are made up not for the tax bills of this year, but for next year. Thus our assessments in Missouri are now being made up as of the first of June. Of course, the farmers returns nothing but his land and his live stock. No crops are in existence. The tax bills are made up this winter and are payable next summer, and thus the result so desired by many persons is practically secured without any exemption under the law. It illustrates how results may sometimes be accomplished outside of the law by a mere adjustment or arrangement of the assessment machinery.—F. N. Judson, Chairman Missouri Tax Commission, Before First National Tax Conference.

PUBLISH TAX LISTS.

On the theory that the public business demands publicity, many localities are now publishing a complete list of taxpayers and their individual assessments. Illinois has used this plan since 1807. Rhode Island requires it in her law. Delaware likewise uses the system to some extent. A few towns in New Hampshire have issued such a publication in neat pamphlet form. Nevada requires this list for every county.—Prof. James E. Boyle, niversity of North Dakota Before First National Tax Conference.

VEIL OF MYSTERY HIDES SECRET

OF THE SLAYER OF HAZEL DREW, FOUND DEAD IN A MILL POND.

THE INVESTIGATION HALTS.

Careful Inquiry by the Authorities for More than a Week Fails to Throw Any Light on the Puzzle.

Troy, N. Y., July 18.—The impenetrable veil of mystery behind which lies hidden the secret of the slayer of Hazel Drew and the story of the tragedy of the abandoned mill pond, may never be lifted. Somewhere, possibly among the charcoal burners in the hills beyond Taborton, on one of the farms in the vicinity or perhaps in the city of Troy, the perpetrator of the crime may be mingling with those who are endeavoring to bring him to justice. So baffling is the mystery that after almost a week of careful inquiry along the paths which might lead to its solution, the investigation has come almost to a standstill.

Where Hazel was on the night of July 6 and until she was seen on the lonely road leading to Taborton the following evening, when she is supposed to have met death, is a problem that the authorities have yet to solve.

This accomplished, the motive and the murder remain to be accounted for. Murder, accident and suicide theories abound, but facts are few. Even the reward of $1,000 which the county has offered as an incentive to further activities in the case has not yet served to bring out anything of a helpful character.

Letters are beginning to reach the hands of District Attorney O'Brien containing something about the case. A few received Friday were unsigned. Nowhere has it been shown that Hazel had a real love affair. While on her trip to New York with Carrie Weaver they had no male companions, according to Miss Weaver. They sought the shelter of the Young Women's Christian association for the night spent in the metropolis.

Crew Narrowly Escaped Drowning.

Cleveland, July 18.—One woman and five men had a narrow escape from drowning Friday afternoon when the big ore freighter Dunneln crashed into the gravel boat Lilly, cutting her almost in two. The crew of the Lilly rushed up on deck, terror-stricken. The boat was rapidly sinking and the men and the woman jumped overboard so as not to be caught in the whirling water of the sinking ship. The life saving crew rescued them.

Lightning Killed Two People.

Columbus, O., July 18.—Mrs. C. F. Gugle, aged 35, wife of C. F. Gugle, head of the sporting goods department of a local store, and Earl Vigor, aged 19, son of A. E. Vigor, a meat dealer, were killed by a stroke of lightning Friday while in camp along Big Walnut creek at Truro, seven miles south of Columbus. John Gugle, aged 4, only child of the dead woman, sustained severe injuries from the lightning, but will recover.

Mystery Surrounds Woman's Death.

Upper Sandusky, O., July 18.—Much mystery surrounds the killing of Mrs. Jacob Allison, aged 50, a well-to-do widow, by a Big Four train at 1 o'clock Friday morning. The woman lived two miles north of Carey, but the train struck and demolished her buggy and killed her two miles south of Carey. Relatives are puzzled to know what she was doing in that vicinity at such an hour, as she seldom left home, even in daytime.

One Committee Delayed Too Long.

Columbus, O., July 18.—The close of the period in which county party committees might make nominations to the county boards of election found but three counties out, the Republicans in Darke, Lake and Meigs, but as a matter of fact, Darke is the only one not heard from. The committees in Lake and Meigs have just organized and Secretary of State Thompson has agreed to appoint the persons they will name later.

Seymour Issues First Certificate.

Columbus, O., July 18.—State Bank Superintendent Seymour on Friday issued his first certificate to a new bank. The new law provides that before a bank can open and begin business it must receive a certificate from the superintendent. Mr. Seymour had not yet prepared his certificate form and the attorney general drew up a written form for use in this case. The application came from Cleveland.

Alleged Murderer Is Arrested.

Youngstown, O., July 18.—While police were getting automobiles to pursue Frank Ward, ex-convict, for the alleged murder of Walter Henry, manager of the Duquesne hotel, on a country road near here Thursday night, Ward walked into town and was arrested. He carried no gun and disclaimed knowledge of the shooting. He was locked up on a charge of murder.

Was Cut in Two by a Car.

Cleveland, July 18.—William Kelly was cut in two by a street car Friday. Kelly is foreman of the barns at Superior avenue and Doan street. The wheel passed over Kelly's leg and the lower part of his body, cutting him in two.

Two Boys Killed by Lightning.

Dayton, O., July 18.—Clyde Zar, aged 20, and Walter Cowitz, aged 14 were killed by lightning on a farm near Vandalia Friday evening. The boys had taken their horses into a barn and Zar laid down on the hay inside the barn, while Cowitz stood outside, leaning against the barn Lightning struck an elm tree standing near the building, leaped to the barn and passed through the body of the Zar boy, ran down the hay and split the skull of Cowitz. Another boy standing with Cowitz was uninjured, but the horses on the wet barn floor were killed.

Toledo, July 18.—The removal of James T. Smith, waterworks cashier several weeks ago, was followed Friday by a report of examiners of his books that they are short $2,840. It is whispered that Smith is shielding parties higher up. The probe will be continued back 17 years.

Gompers Denies Sending Cablegram

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mannett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

MINOR MENTION.

President Roosevelt has refused an offer to make speeches into the receiver of a talking machine for the purpose of making records for public sale.

China has asked Japan to consent to the restriction of the importation into China of morphine, as well as instruments used for the injection of the drug.

Two government customs inspectors and a wharf watchman were killed and four men injured by the explosion of a box containing detonating caps at Boston.

John W. Tomlinson, Alabama member of the national Democratic committee, announces that volunteers to assist in the campaign throughout the United States will be accepted.

Catrow Is Out of the Race.

Dayton, O., July 18.—Col. H. C. Catrow, mililonaire Republican candidate for congress from the Third district, has announced his withdrawal from the race. Col. Catrow is prompted to take this step by remorse over having struck Eugene Sullivan, a laborer, on the street here, instantly killing him.

New Theory in the Hazel Drew Case.

Troy, N. Y., July 17.—That Hazel Drew came to her death as a result of an automobile accident instead of being the victim of a deliberate murder is one of the theories put forth last night as a possible solution of the Teal pond mystery. After five days of careful investigation in which many theories have been advanced, a motive for the murder is lacking. Nothing has been learned that would warrant the authorities in making an arrest.

A Triple Tragedy.

Milwaukee, Wis., July 18.—William Hill, a barber at the Soldiers' home last night killed himself after he had killed Mrs. Kimbell, said to have been his wife, though known by the name of a former husband, and Joseph Biettner and wounded another man.

CAMPBELL BELONGED TO SQUIRREL HUNTERS

Columbus, July 17.—Hon. James E. Campbell, former governor of Ohio and who is the Democratic candidate for United States senator, having been endorsed for that place by the recent state convention of that party, has another claim to distinction. He is also a "Squirrel Hunter," a member of that band of warriors bold that organized to repel threatened invasion of the Buckeye state by southern raiders during the Civil war. If Mr. Campbell has in his possession the discharge given to all those who responded as "Squirrel Hunters" by Governor Tod, he may step up to the state's trough and collect the munificent sum of $13, which the legislature appropriated for those who rendered that patriotic service. In addition to being a "Squirrel Hunter" Governor Campbell served through the Civil war as a member of the navy, which, with the help of the army, he says, put down the rebellion.

GREENFORD

Greenford, July 17.—Preparations for a gala time are being made here for Saturday evening, when the Greenford band will hold a festival in the park. The local organization has invited as guests the Canfield and Leetonia bands, which will be present to render selections.

The Mahoning County Grange will hold its annual picnic at the Canfield fair grounds on Saturday, July 25. Two speakers, one of whom will be L. C. Laylin, former secretary of state, will make addresses, and other addresses will be made by talent from the different granges of the county. The occasion is also the regular meeting of Pomona Grange, and a pomona dinner will be served.

John Strohecker went to Alliance on business Friday.

WOMAN'S NIGHTMARE

No woman can be happy without children; it is her nature to love them as much so as it is the beautiful and pure. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass is so fraught with dread that the very thought fills her with apprehension. There is no necessity for the reproduction of life to be either very painful or dangerous. The use of Mother's Friend prepares the system for the coming event, and it is passed without any danger. This remedy is applied externally, and has carried thousands of women through the crisis with but little suffering.

Write for book containing information of value to all expectant mothers.

Lost Money by Failure.

Lisbon, July 18.—A case was filed in common pleas court yesterday wherein A. G. Mason as assignee of George B. Harvey brings suit against Minnie L. and V. C. Helman of this city to compell the payment of $200 on two promissory notes made out to Mr. Harvey. In the answer of the defendants, which was also filed yesterday, they set up that through the failing of the Lisbon Banking Co., of which the said George B. Harvey was president, the defendants lost $415, and they asked the court to set aside the suit.

New Wheat Received.

Columbus, July 18.—Local grain men are now handling new wheat, and the farmers are receiving from 81 to 85 cents a bushel for their grain, according to quality. Local buyers say that the quality of Ohio wheat this year is very good, much better than last year, but the yield per acre will be much less. The grain is being marketed rapidly, and some large shipments have already been made by the local grain firms.

HIS HORSE WAS STOLEN.

Locking the stable after the horse is stolen is about as sane an act as trying to grow hair after the head is bald.

If the hair root is absolutely dead, permanent baldness will be your lot, and you might as well cheer up and tell your friends that it isn't so bad after all, as to bemoan your fate.

But if your hair is just beginning to thin out; if the thought occurs to you that in a year or two you can take your seat in the bald headed row without being asked for credentials, then you've got a chance, and a great big chance.

If your hair is falling out or thinning out, don't wait another day; go to Bolger & French, the druggists, and get a bottle of Parisian Sage, the most efficient hair grower the world has ever known.

Don't say, "It's the same old story; I've heard it before," but try a bottle at Bolger & French's risk.

They guarantee Parisian Sage to grow hair, to stop falling hair, to cure dandruff, and stop scalp itch in two weeks, or money back.

Parisian Sage is the most invigorating hair dressing made. It is antiseptic; it kills all odors that are bound to arise from excretions of the scalp during the hot months, and everyone knows that sage is very cooling to the scalp.

Parisian Sage is a prime favorite with discriminating ladies, because it makes the hair lustrous and luxuriant. Get a large bottle from Bolger & French for only 50 cents, or by express, all charges prepaid, from the American makers, Giroux Mfg. Co. Buffalo, N. Y.

missioner was ordered to take out another foot of dirt and fill in with the same amount of cinders from Lundy street to the alley at the postoffice, and also place a box crossing at the entrance to the Hayes' barn. The commissioner was also ordered to look after the securing of the necessary cinders for use in the alley and also at Centennial park, where the drives will be filled with cinders, and on this a top coating of about four inches of crushed limestone.

Permission was granted the residents of Penn street through Charles Mellinger, who came to the board with the request, to construct a sewer in the alley between Dry and Columbia streets, and to tap the Lincoln avenue sewer.

The clerk was instructed to wait on the city solicitor and ascertain what sewers are now ready for the sewer contracts to be let, and to have him prepare the contracts for the board. The matter of projecting water and gas plugs was called to the attention of the board by reason of the recent suits brought against the city on account of accidents from people falling over these plugs. The question will be taken up with the water and gas companies, and an effort made to have them place these obstructions flush with the sidewalk. An order was also given the city engineer to buy a carload of paving brick for the street commissioner for work in repairing and other needs. The question of water closets at the park was also discussed at some length, and plans will probably be drawn and some action taken at the next meeting. City Engineer French was granted one week's leave of absence, a sufficient amount of work having been laid out to keep the commissioner's force busy for some time to come. Mr. French will probably leave on Thursday of next week.
